Jatto Abdul.

Engineer. Entrepreneur.
Mentor. Author.

Grow without losing yourself.

Jatto Abdul is an engineer and entrepreneur who builds software, shares ideas, and mentors people navigating career, character, and faith. A Muslim mentor and lifelong learner, he writes, speaks, and makes videos to help people pursue their ambitions without leaving their foundations behind.

For hosts and organizers

“Jatto Abdul is an engineer, entrepreneur, mentor, and author. He builds software and shares what he learns through writing, speaking, and mentoring, helping people grow in career, character, and faith without losing themselves.”

Hosts may shorten this while keeping the builder first and the mentoring purpose intact.
